Session 1	8:30	9:00	From Vision to Reality: Keynote Addresses	Facilitator & Introductory Words: Dirk Forrister, President & CEO; IETA  Key Speaker Addresses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• John Roome, Senior Director; World Bank Group</li> <li>• Paul Watkinson, Chair; SBSTA</li> <li>• Patricia Espinosa, Executive Secretary; UNFCCC</li> </ul>
Session 2	9:00	10:00	Running the Numbers: Market Forecasts &amp; Sentiments in Europe and Beyond - Launch of 4 influential Reports  Will the Chinese ETS deliver? What are views on carbon prices around the world? What is the outlook for the markets in North America? What are the success and challenges of EU ETS reform? What role the ETS can play in the bloc's 2050 decarbonisation strategy? The last quarter has seen unprecedented price volatility in the European carbon market as compliance entities and traders anticipate the impact of measures to reduce the oversupply of allowances. All these questions, and more, will be addressed in this session, which gathers respected analysts who have recently published the following influential reports: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>. IETA '2018 GHG Market Sentiment Survey'</li> <li>. ERCST/ICTSD '2018 State of the EU ETS Report'</li> <li>. Carbon Tracker 'Carbon Clampdown: Closing the Gap to a Paris-Compliant EU-ETS'</li> <li>. Session 3	10:10	11:10	EU ETS Review 2021-2030: New Rules, New Challenges In early 2018, the review of the EU’s carbon market for 2021-2030 was concluded. Many market participants forecast the EU ETS to be strengthened and supply-demand-balance to be restored soon. Others point out that the EU’s carbon market is under threat from overlapping policies and that new rules will have to be aligned with the Paris Agreement in the context of the EU’s long-term climate strategy review. The session will discuss the post-2020 EU ETS reform, new challenges that the EU’s carbon market is facing and its role in the 2050 EU’s decarbonisation strategy.	Moderator: Ingo Ramming, Managing Director, Head of Corporate &amp; Investor Solutions; Commerzbank Discussants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Peter Reitz, CEO; European Energy Exchange</li> <li>• Peter Zapfel, European Commission; Head of Unit B1 - ETS Policy Development and Auctioning; European Commission</li> <li>• Hege Fjellheim, Head of Carbon Analysis; Thomson Reuters</li> <li>• Kavita Ahluwalia, Vice President &amp; Head of EU Liaison Office; Uniper SE</li> <li>• Emilie Alberola, Head of Climate Policies and Market Mechanisms; EcoAct</li> </ul>
Session 4	11:20	12:20	Carbon Pricing in the Americas December 2017 saw the launch of the Carbon Pricing Declaration of the Americas. National and sub-national government across both North America and South America are signatories to this first-of-its-kind collaborative initiative...and the world is watching! Join this session to learn more about the Declaration’s mission, project activities and partnership efforts towards strengthening carbon accounting and pricing system alignment. Speakers join us from across some of the signatory jurisdictions (Canada, California, Chile, Mexico) to discuss cross-border collaboration, while delivering into their local carbon pricing experience and outlooks.	Moderator: Katie Sullivan, Managing Director, The Americas &amp; Climate Finance; IETA Discussants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Enrique Lendo, Head of International Affairs; Secretariat of Environment and Natural Resources (SEMARNAT), Mexico</li> <li>• Kathleen Rich, Director of Carbon Pricing Bureau; Environment &amp; Climate Change (EEC), Canada</li> <li>• Mariza Montes de Oca, Senior Project Manager; ICAP</li> <li>• Juan Pedro Searle, Ministry of Energy, Chile</li> <li>• Marcelo Mena, Practice Manager, Climate Change Group; World Bank Group</li> </ul>

Session 6	14:50	15:50	Bringing Markets from Paris to Katowice The journey to bring to life the Paris Agreement’s market provisions is nearing its completion. After a quick layover in Bangkok in the late summer, the final stop will be COP24 in Katowice, when negotiators are expected to deliver the Paris Rulebook. This session will reflect on the latest state of play, taking stock of the outcome of the early-May Bonn talks, and will discuss the direction of travel for the next crucial six months, with the aim to identify the possible landing zones for the key elements of Art. 6.	Moderator: Rick Saines, Partner; Baker &amp; McKenzie Discussants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Kelley Kizzier, Art6 Co-Chair; EU / UN</li> <li>• Silke Karcher, Head of Division European Climate and Energy Policy; New Market Mechanisms; BMU</li> <li>• Renat Heuberger, CEO; South Pole</li> <li>• Mandy Rambharos, Climate Change and Sustainability Manager; Eskom</li> <li>• Mbaye Diagne, Director General; Afrique Énergie Environnement (AEE), Senegal</li> </ul>
Session 7	16:00	17:00	High Level Roundtable: The Talanoa Experience Talanoa means getting to the “greater good” by sharing stories to build new and better understanding with mutual respect for differing views. This year’s dialogue asks us to reach for greater climate ambition by exploring where are we, where we need to go – and how will we get there? How can markets and finance unlock greater ambition?	Moderator: Dirk Forrister, President &amp; CEO; IETA Framing Remarks: Tomasz Chruszczow, High Level Champion; COP24 Discussants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Jos Delbeke, Special Adviser on Relations with the European University Institute, Florence; European Political Strategy Center</li> <li>• Glen Murray, Executive Director; Pembina</li> <li>• Alan Knight, Corporate Responsibility General Manager; ArcelorMittal</li> <li>• Nicolette Bartlett, Director of Climate Change, CDP</li> <li>• Pablo Fernandez, Head of Climate Services; BVRio</li> <li>• Neeraj Prasad, Manager, Climate</li> </ul>
