11:15-12:15: Session 2 - Türkiye ETS: Turning the New Framework into Action

Co-led by EPIAS & Gaia Climate

With the Türkiye Emissions Trading System Regulation entering into force in August 2026, Türkiye has taken a major step towards operationalizing its national carbon market. This session will examine the new regulatory framework, including ETS scope, emissions permitting, monitoring, reporting and verification, allowance allocation, and market operation. The discussion will focus on the transition from regulation to implementation, the forthcoming pilot phase, and the practical implications for covered industries, policymakers, and market participants.

Speakers

- Mustafa Aydın — Deputy General Manager, Environmental and Mining Markets — EPIAŞ
- Okan Yardımcı — Head of Environmental Markets — EPDK
- Ingo Ramming — Head of Carbon Markets — BBVA
- Vedat Akgiray — Director — CARF

12:15-13:30: Networking Lunch

13:30-14:30: Session 3 - Navigating CBAM: Carbon Pricing, Competitiveness and Cooperation

Led by IETA and Enerjisa Customer Solutions

As Türkiye advances its new ETS and the EU CBAM enters its first year of definitive implementation, carbon pricing and border adjustment are increasingly shaping trade relations. This session will explore how CBAM can support climate and economic cooperation while addressing emerging challenges for policymakers and businesses operating across carbon-adjusted borders. The session also covers how businesses can reduce CBAM-related emissions and mitigate the associated financial risks.

Speakers

- Aurora D'Aprile — EU Policy Director — IETA (Moderator)
- Bülent Analay — Energy Management Director — Enerjisa
- Alfredo Nicastro — Senior VP — StoneX
- Şimal Çınar Zurnacı — Sustainability Lead — Garanti BBVA

14:45-15:45: Session 4 – From Projects to the ETS: Developing Türkiye’s National Carbon Standard

Led by Gaia Climate

As Türkiye moves toward implementation of its national ETS, project-based carbon credits could play an important role in supporting domestic climate action and mobilising private investment. This session will explore the case for a credible national carbon standard and the key considerations for integrating project-based credits into the Türkiye ETS. Drawing on perspectives from Türkiye, an international carbon crediting standard, and European experience, the discussion will examine how robust standards, governance and market infrastructure can support environmental integrity while enabling a trusted domestic carbon credit market.

Speakers

- Kübra Ağrıman— General Manager, Türkiye Business — Earthood (Moderator)
- Kishor Rajhansa — COO — Global Carbon Council
- Egbert Liese — Partner — Walburg&Partners
- Hasanali Atalay — Manager, Environmental and Mining Markets — EPIAŞ

15:45-16:15: Coffee Break

16:15-17:15: Session 5 - Green Industry at Scale: Mobilising Finance for the Transition

Co-led by EBRD, Gaia Climate, IETA

The transition to a low-carbon economy will require significant investment in the transformation of energy and carbon-intensive industries. This session will explore how Türkiye can mobilise public and private capital to support green industrialisation while maintaining industrial competitiveness and strengthening its position in global value chains. The discussion will examine the role of sustainable finance, transition finance, carbon pricing, blended finance and other innovative financing instruments in accelerating industrial decarbonisation, as well as how financial institutions, investors, industry and policymakers can work together to turn transition plans into investable projects

Speakers

- Gediz S. Kaya — Managing Partner — GAIA Climate (Moderator)
- Mehmet Erdem Yaşar — Deputy Head of Türkiye Unit — EBRD
- Başak Ödemiş — Global Lead / Carbon Finance — The World Bank Group
- Emre Özben — Corporate & Investment Banking Executive VP - Akbank
